Senior Convention a success

Rick Ledingham with Noosa District State High school captions. Year 12 students from the school recently attended their annual Senior Convention at the University of the Sunshine Coast. Rick highlighted the benefits of goal setting to the student audience. He emphasised the need to develop a positive mental attitude and how personal belief can lead to a plan of action for the school year ahead and into adulthood.

Eumundi Combined Community Organisation Ltd

What do you or your community organisation want to see that will benefit Eumundi and district?

- An enhanced streetscape?
- Community bus?
- Projects for our youth and senior citizens?
- Tourism and business development?
- Projects that illustrate our history and culture?
- Community wellbeing and sustainability?

ECCO is inviting submissions from individuals and organisations in the Eumundi area for projects that will benefit the local community, to be funded in time from any proceeds of the Eumundi community car parks.

Please send your submissions by Tuesday 31 March 2009 in writing to: The Executive Officer, ECCO, PO Box 482, Eumundi, Qld 4562, or by email to info@eumundicco.com.au

ECCO (Eumundi Combined Community Organisation Ltd) was formed as a multi-party agreement between three community associations: Eumundi and District Chamber of Commerce (ECC), Eumundi and District Community Association (EDCA) and Eumundi and District Historical Association (EHA) to bring benefits to stakeholders across the local community, residents, market stall holders, businesses and the large numbers of visitors to the town. Within its objectives ECCO aims to support projects that benefit the district of Eumundi, to promote and encourage tourism and business opportunities that enhance the town and acquire and operate communal activities. For more information on ECCO and its activities go to www.eumundicco.com.au
